

'Wickered purposes'

Storytelling.

©© Tito del Muro

Raul is a handsome officer worker under the orders of a titanic boss that humiliates him frequently. He is a frustrated person that relieve his frustration killing women that meets by classified ads in the newspaper. He cuts her throat using a silver razor blade which is a fetish for him.

One day, his boss orders him to come to his home to help his wife. In an moment of rage, Raul kills the woman and hides the corpse. When he comes back to the office he is told Rebecca, a secretary, that his boss has been found death in a hotel room, without heart.

Claire is a low class very pretty woman. She is tasteless but have the dream to be rich and glamorous like the woman that appears in the gossip magazines and think that a good way to reach her dream is marrying a rich man. Because of this, she answers an ad, that sees in a newspaper page, used for wrapping a steak, given as a present from Damian, a young butcher who is sincerely in love with her.

Claire meets Raul. He seduces her and after having sex with her, Raul kills Claire. Her corpse appears at the exit of a water waste pipe.

Damian is desolated. After the girl death, he becomes fanatic of the cheap detective novels in pulp. He often comes to visit the policeman in charge of the case, but the police have not found the killer yet, and he is worried that the murder of his loved Claire will be filed and closed.

He would like to be a hard-boiled detective, similar to those that appears in the novels he reads compulsively, instead of an honest worker, and catch the killer himself.

After a time, Raul changes his tactic and instead of putting an ad, he answers one. That's the way he meets Alice, a dolls's Taylor and owner of a dolls shop. But deep down she is a killer like him. After a meeting in a café they try to kill each otherher.

They are into a building in ruins and a part of the building falls down over Raul who is gravely wounded. She is about to take his heart when appears a homeless. Alice leaves and the homeless thinks the man is dead. He steals him the wallet, the watch and the silver razor blade. He has a particular mark at his face, a dark birth spot.

In the morning the police find the body without identification. He Has the face disfigured by the woundes. They take the body directly to the hospital morgue.

Many month later, Damian the young butcher meets Rebecca the secretary in a cafe, apparently by chance. He wears like a worker (Corduroy jacket and cup) She looks very simple and shy (formal gray office suit, glass, hair combed in a bun) They begin to chat about its worries. Damian about Claire's murder and Rebecca about his workmate Raul, disappeared months ago.

They agree to join, in order to investigate both cases, just like a play. She suggests him to dress in suit like the novel's detective. She offers him one that belongs to an ex-boyfriend died in accident. She shows him the small gun (6.35 cal.) that carries in the bag as self-defense. . At the next day Damian comes to Rebecca's flat for a dinner, and then she begins to seduce him in a thin manner. She speaks to him about how offended she was by the men. In the bedroom she has a big doll. She suggests him to come next Saturday night to a night-club for fun.

In the meanwhile, Alice is at her dolls shop, when comes in a man with a little girl. The man is the guardian of the child. Her name is Lily, she is an orphan (her mother and father died in strange circumstances) Her tutor, a selfish man, thinks she is evil, but Alice feels a special connection with the girl, even both have red hair. Some dolls are bigger than usual. Alice says that they have heart. Alice propose Lily's guardian to adopt her. He agrees thinking in getting away from such a strange child. Alice and the man make an appointment for the week later.

Rebecca and Damian meets at the "Red moon club" They look quite different people from the first time they met. Damian wears suit, hut and tie and have a thin mustache. He looks a detective film actor. Rebecca is well make-up, the hair loose, and wears a close fitting dress in generous neckline. She looks sensual and beautiful and behave at the club in an extroverted manner. They drink and take drugs. For Damian is the first time that takes LSD. There they meet Alice. Rebecca introduce her as a very close friend, like a sister. After a while Alice leaves the club. Damian feels strange and goes to the toilet. When he comes back, Rebecca is quarreling with a man. Damian hits him furiously. When the man is gone, Rebecca explains to Damian that the man was an ex lover that harrass her. Damian is confused and gets out the club.

Damian walks alone. He is confused and has the impression that someone is following him. When he cross by the bridge, seems to see someone in the middle of the fog. He looses the conscience and wakes up in his bedroom without remembering clearly. He finds Rebecca's gun in his pocket.

In parallel, a mysterious man appears in the old town. He has the face disfigured by many scares and use a stick because walks limping. His named as Faust but actually he is Raul, the killer. He was presumed death, but he survived and now is looking for the homeless that stored his silver razor blade. Along his pursuit kill a homeless in a horrible manner. Then meet Barbara (named Betty Bop) a prostitute, drug-addicted and ill. Under threat, she agrees to help him. Finally, they find the homeless that was looking for. He confesses that sold the blade to a pawn shop. Faust kills him in a creepy scene. Faust and Barbara come to the pawn shop, kill the owner in a horrible manner and Faust get back his razor blade. Then he begins the search of Alice the killer Taylor. He wants revenge. Soon he locates the dolls shop.

By chance, Damian meets Eugene, a lurid crime journalist. They get on and the journalist tell to Damian that one man has been found death in the river with a fire gun shot in the head, The bullet fit with Rebecca's pistol ammunition. And the description of the death man fits with that one Damian hit at the club. Also, the journalist relates that was not the first time he knows about a crime committed with the same special ammunition. Damian speaks to Eugene about Rebecca, the pistol and his doubts about what happened at the club and after. Before investigating at the newspaper, they conclude that there is a link between Rebecca, Alice and the several murders. Also, they find a connection with Raul, Claire's killer. As well, they think he is alive.

Damian meets Rebecca at her flat. He discovers that inside the doll she has in the bedroom, there is a mummified human heart.

Damian is sure that Rebecca and Alice are two serial killers but does not say anything to her. She seduces him, as a strategy to still manipulate him. She confesses that also thinks Raul is alive and propose Damian to catch him.

In turn, the journalist makes the same macabre discovery at Alice's shop, where he finds dolls with human heart.

Rebecca comes to Alice's shop. By a chat, we know that in fact they are sisters. Alice killed her father and still is killing since there in a collaboration with Rebecca. She takes out the heart of her victims. Also, we know they are occasionally lovers.

The little Lily comes with her guardian and his lover. Rebecca, Lily and the woman take a walks while, supposedly, Alice and the child's guardian check the adoption papers at the shop. But Alice kill the guardian and takes out his heart.

When his lover (a married woman) comes back Alice tells her that the man left without her.

The woman comes out sad and walks, thinking in going back with her husband.

Raul is in front of the Alice's shop, Guarding. Follows the woman and kills her. Then leave the corpse at Alice's shop door with a note where he writes a text like the ones she checks in her newspaper ads. Immediately Alice realize is him that has come back looking for revenge. She also wants to kill him since that night.

Alice decides to move to the child house, an isolate mansion outside the city beside a forest.

Damian, following an intuition, comes to Feigrvear, a bad reputation district in the old town. He thinks Raul could be hiding there. He meets Amanda in a bar. She is an actrice and ex-convicted who was in jail due to try to kill her husband. But she is a good person and, after listening the story that Damian tells her about Claire, her killer and Rebecca, offered to help him.

Damian describes Raul to Amanda, if it was the case she had seen him. By this way he knows where Raul is living, a poor hotel. He stands out, in front of the hotel. Raul comes out. Damian follow him till an abandoned garden where is an old chapel and graveyard.

Damian faces Raul who thinks he comes to kill him by order of his antagonist, Alice. Raul confesses to be the killer of Damian's love Claire, Raul warn Damian about his relationship with Rebecca and Alice. He let him onconscience and in the bottom of an empty grave semi buried. When Damian wakes up and comes out the grave finds a note and a small key of a mail box. In the note, Raul order him to pick up something.

Damian, Amanda the actrice and Eugene the journalist trace a plan in order to obtain a double purpose. In one hand, unmask Rebecca as the true killer of her ex-boyfriend and in consequence get free of the ramp she lays, making him appear as suspected of the murder. And on the other hand obtain revenge for Claire's murder.

Eugene publishes a false news in the newspaper, saying that a wife of the murder has appeared suddenly, an actrice called Amanda. He also speaks with the police. For his part, Damian comes to visit Rebecca with a copy of the false newspaper and that was in the mailbox and the pistol. He related her his meeting with Raul. He takes to her an portentous ring. He explains to her that Raul threaten him for lay a tramp to Alice. Rebecca explains to Damian that the ring belonged to his boss. She confess Alice is her sister and a psychopathic killer and the ring is the proof that shd killed her boss.

Damian convince her that he is in love with her (laying) in order that she can suspect nothing about the tramp. He tells her that they can lay a tramp to Raul in such a way that Alice can kill him without risk, because he claims Raul wants to kill her sister as she already knows. She agrees and indicates him where is Alice. Damian convince her to go to see Alice and explain her the plan in person. When Damian leaves the flat, Rebecca phones Alice and update her. In fact Rebecca does not trust at all Damian and suggest her sister to kill him, because he has already too much information about its crimes,

But, instead of Damian, Raul appears in the mansion by surprise (Damian said to him that Alice was found in his double play). Alice and Raul fight and finally he kills her but Raul is gravely wounded. He escapes when the police appears (they received an anonymous call) Lily, the child has witnessed all the events, Rebecca dresses in manswear, comes to the cinema studio. She finds Amanda in a set and shoots her because she had believe the false news and think she can recognize her as the true killer. Amanda falls down covered with blood. Rebecca confess her crime in a delirium moment. Then appears the police and catch her. By her surprise Amanda stands up alive. Following the plan, Damian changed the pistol bullet for blank ones, and Amanda's wounds was a FX.

Damian is meeting with Amanda and Eugene, they regret Raul the killer had escaped, but Amanda claim he will pay for his crimes sooner or later.

Almost one year later, Raul appears at his old office. He tells to the new boss he had suffered a serious accident and closed the memory for a long time. He wants to recover his job. After a time he decides to start killing women again. By a newspaper ad, he meets a woman in a café (Amanda, the actrice) She is dressed with a dress print with flowers. She poison him and while he is going death with a great suffering, she related to him who is she and that the ad was a tramp, because she and Damian were sure he'll come back and were waiting for the time to revenge Claire. She says that the dress she wears belonged to her. Finally, she cuts his throat with his own silver razor blade as he did with his victims.

In a final scene there are Amanda Eugene and Damian beside Claire tomb.